DRAFT

Report to Council

Date: June 1, 2016
File: [RIM Classification Number]
To: City Manager
From: Jodie Foster, Communications Supervisor
Subject: City of Kelowna Sponsorship and Advertising Program and Policy Development

Recommendation:

That Council receives, for information, the report from the Communications Supervisors dated June 1, 2016, with respect to the development of a City of Kelowna Sponsorship and Advertising policy and program.

Purpose:

To provide Council with an overview of municipal sponsorship and the feedback gathered from a sponsorship workshop hosted by the City of Kelowna, and to outline the sales model to be used in the development of a City Sponsorship and Advertising Policy and Program.

Background:

City Council has identified exploring opportunities to generate revenue as a Council Priority for strong financial management.

More municipalities are turning to sponsorship as one option for revenue generation. In the 2015 Citizen Survey, 81 per cent of respondents said they would support corporate sponsorship for municipal programs and facilities, including 41 per cent who said they strongly support it.

In 2015, Partnership Group conducted an inventory and valuation of several City properties and their associated assets, which would be appropriate for sponsorship and advertising. The exercise indicated that over time, the City could expect to generate about $1 million annually in ongoing revenue.

Partnership Group has been retained this year to assist with drafting a policy and finalizing the asset list. In addition, Partnership Group will develop a strategic program plan including a sales approach and model, templates, a prospect list, revenue forecasts and timelines that would allow the City to launch a formal sponsorship and advertising program. The policy and program will come to Council for consideration later in 2016.

Community Workshop:

If the City formalizes a sponsorship and advertising policy and program, there is the potential for real or perceived impact on other organizations that also undertake philanthropic and sponsorship activity in the community.

Partnership Group advises that this is a commonly noted issue in other municipalities where formalized programs have evolved. One mitigation is to assist local organizations through professional development opportunities to “elevate the sponsorship game” across the community. This has already been a successful strategy in Kelowna through programs like artsVest B.C., which supports cultural organizations by guiding them on how to develop sponsorship relationships and then apply for matching funds.

To determine the needs of non-profits and City partners, staff and the Partnership Group hosted a workshop on May 16. The workshop provided a sponsorship basics learning opportunity, as well as a venue to gather community feedback on the potential for a formalized City of Kelowna Sponsorship and Advertising policy and program.

Invitations went out to over 40 organizations directly by email, as well as a general invitation on the City’s social media channels. 26 people from 13 organizations attended (See Appendix A for the list). Feedback was gathered during the workshop and through a questionnaire gathered after the workshop. Three main themes emerged:

- A couple of the organizations expressed some concern that the City entering into a more formal sponsorship program could impact their revenues or limit their ability to conduct their own sponsored events within City facilities
- The organizations found this learning opportunity useful and said they could benefit from future opportunities with topics such as prospect development, writing agreements, valuation of assets, networking with the business community, networking with other like-minded organizations
- Organizations requested continued involvement as the policy and program drafts are developed including specific information on how the City could provide community support going forward

This feedback will be addressed while drafting the Sponsorship and Advertising policy and program.

Sponsorship and Advertising Sales Model:

In order to generate accurate revenue projects, the sponsorship policy and program will need to include a finalized asset list and the operational sales model. The asset list will be finalized for Council consideration and brought forward later this year.

In general, there are three models used to sell sponsorship and advertising assets in most municipalities. These include:

- Using a sales agency or contractor to conduct all sales and manage the program
- Using staff to conduct all sales and manage the program

- Using a hybrid model with a base level of staff to manage the program and a sales agency or contractor for sales and other support

Staff will to use the hybrid model of sales for the development of the policy and business case portion of the program plan for the following reasons:

- Staff consistency allows the City of Kelowna to own sponsor relationships
- Using a hybrid model allows flexibility to build the program over a period of time
- Using a hybrid model allows flexibility to incorporate areas such as the Airport and Regional Services that already have a contractor doing advertising sales on their behalf

Next Steps:

The next steps include the development of a draft Sponsorship and Advertising policy and program for Council consideration later this year.

Internal Circulation:

Carla Weaden, Communications and Information Services Divisional Director
Jim Gabriel, Active Living and Culture Divisional Director

Existing Policy:

City of Kelowna Civic Community Facilities Naming Policy Number # 343
City of Kelowna Park Naming Policy Number # 251

Financial/Budgetary Considerations:

There is $100,000 in the 2016 budget for the sponsorship and advertising project.

Personnel Implications:

If Council approves the program later this year, a staffing request would be submitted for Council consideration as part of the 2017 budget. It is expected that staffing costs would be off-set by program revenue over time.

No preferential treatment for corporate sponsors of muni's – sponsorship and awarding of contracts should be separate

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

- 1) Inventory Asset Valuation
- 2) Policy Development
- 3) Understanding Community Impact
- 4) Strategy and Model Development
- 5) Implementation of Policy, Strategy and Model
- 6) Fulfilment of Agreements

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

1) Inventory Asset Valuation

- Critical to determine what you have to sell
- Essential to understand what those assets are worth individually
- Knowing what the potential revenue truly is and how it can be achieved

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

2) Policy Development

- Critical to have policy specific to sponsorship in addition to advertising and naming rights etc.
- Necessary to make sure these all work in conjunction with each other and are up to date and have no conflicts
- Ensure policy is flexible to meet all departmental needs

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

3) Understanding Community Impact

- Ensuring you have community input and education from the charities, non-profits and local businesses
- Raising the bar for sponsorship in the community at the grassroots levels
- Teaching the organizations to fish rather than continuing to feed them

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

3) Understanding Community Impact

- Potential workshops for the community to ensure they can get better at what they do and understand the difference between advertising, sponsorship and donations / philanthropy
- The success of existing programs like ArtsVest in Kelowna is raising the bar and delivering results

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

4) Strategy and Model Development

- Essential to have a full strategic plan in place looking at the sales model; fulfilment delivery, prospect development and timelines and staffing levels
- The average timeline for a sponsorship in Canada is 18-22 months

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

4) Strategy and Model Development

- Looking at models for sales and considering all options
 - Presently sales firm selling advertising at Airport
 - Do you go with 100% outsourced sales method
 - There exists the option to bring everything in house
 - Alternatively it could be a hybrid of the above or transitional

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

5) Implementation of Policy, Strategy and Model

- Once the first four steps are complete it is time to put the theory into practice
- Critical to follow the strategy and not stray
- Ensure the policy is working and meets all stakeholder needs

SIX STEPS TO SPONSORSHIP SUCCESS

6) Fulfilment of Agreements

- Long term success and renewals depend on you delivering on what you promised to partners
- You are setting the bar for the community organizations to understand the need for fulfilment
- You need to ensure staffing levels are met in fulfilment

WRAP UP

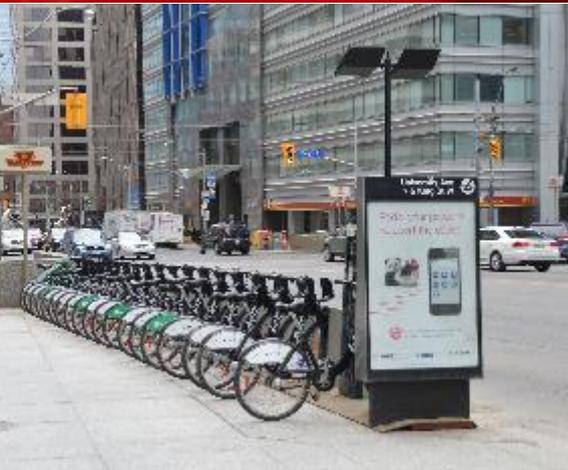

- You are well on your way to success
- One of 6 Steps done
- 3 of 6 Steps in the works
- You are reaching out for interaction, input and engagement
- The final two steps will come with Council consideration of policy, strategy and model
