- Lived in the home since April 2010.

- Believes the application will provide affordable housing in the Quail Ridge area.
- Appreciates and values the quiet neighbourhood and will rent to those who share those values.
- Tenants will park in the driveway and will share half of the garage.
- Confirmed that all short term rentals have stopped since non-compliance was brought to his attention by the City.
- Responded to questions from Council.

Gallery:

Blair Donnelly, Allegro Mews

- President of Strata for 11 years however not representing Strata at this time.
- Lives directly above the property in question.
- Spoke to the numerous bylaw infractions and fines against the Applicant.
- Advised that the pool in the backyard has not been shown in any plans.
- Responded to questions from Council.

City Clerk:

- Made general comment on the bylaw non-compliance for uses contrary to the zone for suite and for short term rentals.
- Responded to questions from Council.

Richard Newton, Quail Place

- Opposed to this proposal.
- Bought his home on the basis that the CD6 zone did not permit suites.
- Raised concern with increased traffic in the area.
- Believed the area was not developed properly for secondary suites as services are limited.
- Raised concern with the history of complaints on this property.
- Responded to questions from Council.

Harland Lockhart, Quail Run Drive

- Strata President speaking on his own behalf.
- Raised concern this will set a precedent of rezoning from CD6 to RU1 as it has already happened once.
- Raised concern that there is not adequate parking for suites.
- Raised concern with increasing the density in an area that was not designed for it.
- Raised concern with being outside of the fire coverage area.
