6. Reports

6.1 Active Living & Culture Grant Policy Review

Divisional Director, Active Living & Culture:

- Introduced the Report before Council and provided background context.

Staff:

- Displayed a PowerPoint presentation summarizing the Grant Policy Review and responded to questions from Council.
- Advised that this new process will not change the current process, but provide consistency and clarity across all programs and allow for more comprehensive reporting on funding support provided by Council.
- Advised that the heritage building grants are currently administered by the Policy & Planning Department through the Central Okanagan Foundation; however, the administration of the heritage building grants to Cultural Services is part of the review.

Council:

- Would like to see guidelines around percentages of funding.
- Looking for meaningful information. Was the money well spent? Did the organization use the City's funding to leverage other funding sources?
- Need to know if the funding is delivering the desired objectives.

Moved By Councillor Stack/Seconded By Councillor Hodge

R644/18/07/16 THAT Council receives, for information, the Report from the Partnership Manager dated July 16, 2018 regarding proposed changes to Active Living & Culture grant policies and programs.
