Council Policy

Walkway Fencing – Cost Sharing

APPROVED October 23, 1990

RESOLUTION: R375/10/04/26

REPLACING: R342/99/04/26; R59/1999/01/25; R1535/1990/10/23

DATE OF LAST REVIEW: April 2010

On existing walkways, the City, on request, may contribute towards the cost of fencing, sharing in the cost of materials only, on a 50:50 basis with the adjacent property owner, up to a maximum of $4.00 per lineal foot. The fence remains the property of the adjacent property owner. The fence must be constructed in accordance with Master Municipal Contract Documents standards.

As a result of damage caused by the public, the City may also contribute to repair of the fencing which conforms with Master Municipal Contract Document standards, for 50% of the cost.

Beach accesses are not to be interpreted as walkways for the purpose of cost-sharing of fences under this policy.

REASON FOR POLICY

To spell out the City's responsibilities for walkway fencing.

LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY

Subdivision, Development & Servicing Bylaw No. 7900.

PROCEDURE FOR IMPLEMENTATION

Requests processed through the Transportation Services Manager.
